

PORTFOLIO

"An artist, but above all a storyteller, who undoubtedly possesses a visceral connection with his inner world, and conveys it to the audience in a way that transcends the physicality of an instrument, without fear of exposing his most vulnerable self: inevitably, those who listen to him find themselves vibrating in response."

Fabiola Tedesco - violinist, soloist and concertmaster at Noord Nederland Orkest

"Postcards from Italy is a dense, intense, and moving project. Contemporary and right."

Paolo Fresu - trumpeter, artistic director of Time in Jazz

"One of the things I admire most about Nicolò is his ability to integrate rapidly and meaningfully within a pre-existing musical context. His improvisational input has been essential to shaping the distinctive character of Caravan. As a musician, he brings not only strong technical skills, but also an open ear and a genuine curiosity that enriches every collaboration. "

Julian Schneemann - pianist, artistic director of Pynarello Ensemble

I NEVER LIE

2023 - 2025

"I Never Lie" is a performance by composer and drummer Agnese Valmaggia. Music, visuals and storytelling are controlled live, creating an adventurous multisensory experience to reflection what we take for granted in our daily lives. Through this performance, Agnese Valmaggia inspires the audience to question their own expected behaviours and imagine what they, too, might become.

GELSOMINA DREAMS

2020 - 2024

A dreamlike journey balancing dance, poetry, music, and circus, inspired by the visionary world of the great director and some of his films. On stage, the artists of the blucinQue company move within a symbolic space, minimal in its elements, where choreography, sound, and lighting transport the audience into a world suspended in time—an atmosphere reminiscent of an abandoned film set, echoing Fellini's cinematic legacy..

A production by blucinQue Nice, in collaboration with Fondazione Cirko Vertigo

MUSIC

DUO BOTTASSO

2007 - now

The curious brothers musicians explores various art forms and musical styles throughout their twenty-year career. The contemporary approach to traditional music blends original compositions, improvisation, and electronic elements. By infusing their alpine roots into innovative works, they create a utopian 21st-century folk music with enchanting melodies and avant-garde experimentation.

LINGUAMADRE

2019 - 2021

An unique creative archeology operation in Italian folk music. The lack of translation and the onomatopoeic values of some dialect words connect them to a deeper "truth", making a strong bond between the word itself and the sound and feeling that the word evokes.

RESIDENCIES

BATAVIERHUIS

Rotterdam (The Netherlands) - resident artist since 2024

The Batavierhuis is an independent makerspace with a focus on music. The house is supported by the Batavians themselves, which invest their time and energy to take care of the house together. The Batavierhuis aims to further develop Rotterdam talent and enrich the cultural life of Rotterdam. In Batavierhuis I've been developing my skills on the tenor d'amore violin, an unique custom made instrument by french maker Cesar Sakellarides.

SILLONS

Espace Culturel de Chaillol (France) - 2024

Collective creation weaving its way through the cultures and musical practices of the musicians. Classical and contemporary music intertwine with both traditional and modern influences. Acoustic sounds blend with electronic and digital processing, creating a rich and dynamic sonic landscape.

LINE - UP

Julien Labergerie - alto and baritone saxophone
Nicolò Bottasso - violin, violino tenore d'amore, trumpet
Simone Bottasso - diatonic accordion, live electronics
Simon Charrier - clarinet, bass clarinet

OSA - OPEN SOUND ACADEMY

Saluzzo (Italy) - 2024

5 days residency to develop the interaction between acoustic instruments and electronic work composed by six producer, with samples from occitan folk instruments. Supported by Fondazione Compagnia di S.Paolo, Artwaves

POLYMETRIE

Batavierhuis - Rotterdam (The Netherlands) - 2021

5-days residence to explore space as a sound element. The performance takes place in a hybrid real-digital environment, with a virtual room projected live on stage. Performers and audiences move freely between spaces, exploring spatial perception, extended techniques, polyrhythms, and polytonal harmonies. With the support of Droom & Daad Foundation, in collaboration with Batavierhuis.

SOCIAL & SITE SPECIFIC

CULTURE EN CONTREBANDE

UNESCO fortress of Mont-Dauphin (France) - from 2020 to 2022

A social project in the French Alps exploring the 'illegal' exchanges between Italy and France, featuring an orchestra and choir of 120 people (aged 6 to 89) and a storyteller. A production by Musi'Queyras. Supported and funded by the European Union, Région Sud, Hautes-Alpes, and Parc du Queyras

SANRITO FESTIVAL

Cuneo (Italy) - 2024 , 2023 , 2021 , 2020 , 2019

An ironic and rebellious festival in my hometown. Held at the same time as the Sanremo Festival – Italy's biggest pop mainstream contest – it offers a week-long escape from mainstream channels. A group of outstanding and free musicians support the local songwriting scene, without compromises with the music business and instead focusing purely on art.
